Union Meeting Closed

Last Monday night was the close of the largest revival meeting Lovington has ever had. Our fourth was celebrated by its commencement. And all ministers and members of all denominations seemed to do their utmost to further the cause. A nice shingle roof, abut 48x60 feet, costing about $405, which was readily raised by the citizens in general, was erected in the center of the town square, for the purpose of holding services or any other public meeting, and served a first purpose splendidly, being cool and pleasant in day time with the green trees around to rest the eyes and cold water right at hand and brilliantly lighted at night.

Rev. Barnett (Evangelist) from Hope, N. M., conducted the meeting with the assistance of our some ministers Rev. L. O. Cunningham, Presbyterian; W. M. Cauchamp, Methodist; and J. H. Luse, Baptist, with a few other visiting ministers, and the members of all denominations. A good choir consisting of the three denominations was formed, accompanied by Messrs. Murphy and Andy both of whom read the verses well on their violins while the organist was Miss Dora Thomas. 58 accessions to the churches are reported. Fifteen to the Baptist Church 7 by letter the rest by conversion and baptism, to the Presbyterians all by conversion and baptism during this meeting, and 35 to the Methodist 7 by letter the others by conversion and baptism.

Rev. Barnett was a man of individuality and an earnestness that went well with the majority and one could doze under the sound of his voice although not in the least. At the close of a meeting and in his farewell address he complimented our people on the quiet dignity and interest which had prevailed throughout the entire meeting stating that not once had he seen the least misconduct or disrespect shown in any way by the some four or five hundred people who gathered day and night to listen to his discourse. We too, are proud of our people and with the 58 earnest workers added to the right side we can believe others will follow.

In the five day prayer meetings consisting of the ladies, men, young ladies, little girls, and boys, the little folks did a great work among their play mates. Starting of their own accord prayer meetings of their own and bringing converts every day. Many said they never saw anything like it.

Mexican Shot

Isabel Olgin a Mexican working the Seth Alston sheep ranch was brought to town Monday in a critical condition, caused by the accidental discharge of a gun, so that Mexican states while he was lying to shoot some animal that was disturbing the sheep, the bullet entering the right breast and missing out near the waist line at the back. Mr. Alston who brought him to town wanted to send him to the hospital for treatment but the attending physician said he was unable to stand the trip, so is being taken care of here.

The movie which was to have been shown Friday and Saturday nights, but was put off until after the close of the meeting Monday night, will be attended. The two picture entertainment being shown on Tuesday. The services were held early this morning for the purpose of seeing to be run off the sheep.

Boyd-Hennessy

Last Sunday morning a surprise wedding occurred in which Mr. Wallace Boyd, formerly of Gainesville, Texas, and nephew to J. S. Boyd of this place, and Miss Hattie Hennessy, formerly of Bland, Texas, but lately of Lovington, were the contracting parties. Mr. Boyd securing his license at Plains, Texas, from his uncle, F. L. Boyd, who is county clerk at that place. But returning for his bride elect, and the minister Rev. J. H. Clouse who performed the ceremony.

They left early Sunday morning going through the Highlonesome neighborhood to invite the bride's mother, brother, and sister Mrs. Adams. The little daughter of Mrs. Adams and also Mrs. Smith were along. The bridal party formed at the home of the brides mother and then drove just across the line into Texas to be married, returning to Lovington in time for the 11 o'clock service. The young couple will make their home on his new claim in the 7 H. R. range where he is this week having their residence erected. Although both are late residents of Lovington they have made quite a number of friends who wish them well.
